Opening Prayer

Mary Koon

O Lord our God,

We come before your gracious presence to mourn our loss, to receive comfort from your word and from one another, to contemplate our own mortality, to turn our hearts toward you.

Impress upon us in this hour that this world is not the end that satisfies our spirits, but a place of pilgrimage in which you have set us.

And so, amid the changes and fragility of this life, grant that our hearts may be fixed where true joys are found. In Jesus' name. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd,
I shall not want.*

*He makes me lie down
in green pastures,
He leads me beside still waters.*

He restores my soul.

*He leads me
in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.*

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

*I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;*

*Your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.*

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.

*You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

*all the days of my life,
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
