A Thought to Ponder (from the Social Justice Committee)

“Housing is a human right. There can be no fairness or justice in a society in which some live in homelessness, or in the shadow of that risk, while others cannot even imagine it.” – Jordan Flaherty, Writer, Film & TV Producer

We Gather in God's Name

Prelude

Welcome & Announcements

Opening Words

The earth and everything in it was created by God: the world and all who live in it.

We recognize the Dakota people as the traditional stewards of the land where we now worship. We acknowledge the historic and on-going harm done to Indigenous people.

We are called as a people of faith to do justice, act mercifully, and walk humbly with God.

Therefore, we commit to repair relationships through action, honesty, listening, truth-telling, repentance, and restoration.

Call to Worship (based on Psalm 25)

Marsha Pridgeon

We lift up our souls to you, Holy God.

We trust you with our past, present, and future.

Teach us, O God, that we may know your ways.

Guide our every move, that we may walk in your paths of love and mercy.

Let us worship the One who leads us in what is right.

Together, let us worship God!

*Opening Hymn

“Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah”

*Prayer of Confession

Marsha Pridgeon

Almighty God, mother of mercy, father of grace: You have called us to one table, but we have pursued our own course. You have promised us the abundance of all creation, but in our greed, and in our envy, the world goes without. You have promised us the bread of life itself, but in our pride, and in our arrogance, the world goes hungry. You have promised us the waters of peace and justice but in our violence, and in our discord, the world goes thirsty. And now we are famished, too, God. Have mercy on us. Forgive us. Transform us at the communion table and send us out to be your people in the world.

*Assurance of Grace

Marsha Pridgeon

Even when our cups run dry, God's grace overflows. Even when our plates are empty, God's generosity overflows. Friends, you have been called and claimed by the God of all things, and by the abundance of God's grace. By the power of God's love, we are forgiven.

Thanks be to God. AMEN

*Passing of the Peace

Marsha Pridgeon

Let us greet one another as God's people, forgiven and freed to live abundant lives. The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you. (Exchange the peace with those around you.)

Gracious God, you create more than we could ever hope to return. You share more than we could ever hope to deserve. And yet, we pray, accept these humble gifts. Statement of Land Acknowledgement

We collectively acknowledge that Oak Grove Presbyterian Church is located on the traditional and ancestral lands of Indigenous people. We reside on land that holds great historical, spiritual, and personal significance for the Dakota, Native Nations and Indigenous people of the region. The land was ceded by the Dakota to the U.S. Government through treaties created and upheld with racist underpinnings.

By offering this land acknowledgment, we affirm tribal sovereignty and will work to hold Oak Grove Presbyterian Church accountable to Indigenous people and Nations. We recognize, and continually seek to support and advocate for the sovereignty of the Native Nations in this territory and beyond.
